About

We have been handweaving for you

Independent designer makers and crafters are often on trend much quicker than large businesses and commercially produced gifts. As a small business I can afford to experiment and make one off item to see whether it will gain interest, to spot a trend and design a collection quickly that fits the trend perfectly. To introduce a new product within large commercial organisation can take easily 12 months, small independent designer will be a lot more flexible than that.

A one-of-a-kind community

- A one-of-a-kind community

Craft N' Creations is a global online marketplace, where people come together to make, sell, buy and collect unique items.
- Supporting independent creators

There's no Craft N' Creations warehouse – just millions of people selling the things they love. We make the whole process easy, helping you connect directly with makers to find something extraordinary.
- Peace of mind

Your privacy is the highest priority of our dedicated team. And if you ever need assistance, we are always ready to step in for support.
- Handmade is thoughtful

Each item is a creation of love and skill. The artisan uses all their abilities to create a beautiful item that celebrates their craftsmanship. They have imagined each piece, from beginning to end. The thoughtfulness extends to the buyer, who appreciates all the effort and skill.

 - Ceramic Crockery: A wooden crate containing several hand-painted ceramic plates with fruit designs (lemon, lime, orange).
 - Ceramic Crockery: Three small terracotta vases of different shapes, each holding a small arrangement of dried flowers and grasses.
- Bottom row:
 - Ceramic Crockery: Three slender, hand-molded vases in white, light blue, and grey, each holding a single stem of flowers.
 - Ceramic Crockery: Two large, stylized ceramic vessels shaped like human heads, one yellow/orange and one grey/blue, both filled with pink carnations.
 - Ceramic Crockery: Two anthropomorphic ceramic figures (heads) holding books, used as vases for dried flower arrangements.
 - Ceramic Crockery: Three white, rounded vases of varying heights, with a watermark for "Activate Windows" overlaid on the image.

HANDMADE IS GOOD FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

Handmade products are great for the environment. Most handmade products do not require a factory or large production facility. Instead, nearly all are made in small craft studios and workshops, the transformed shed at the bottom of the garden, or people's own homes.

Handmade is often very local, so it doesn't travel hundreds and thousands of miles to get to you. When you order from Made By Rachel, you know that your handmade order is coming from within the UK and it's made here in the UK too.

EACH HANDMADE PRODUCT IS UNIQUE

Unlike gifts that are mass-produced, you will often find unique differences in each handmade item, which really makes the product and the purchase very special. Nobody in the whole world will have exactly the same item, and that's pretty unique!

A lot of the handmade gifts you can find with Made By Rachel are made to order and can also be customised and personalised to your specification.

HANDMADE IS SUPPORTING THE LOCAL ECONOMY

Howdy, Jardina

When you buy a product from Made By Rachel, you are directly support a UK based artist. Although it may not be directly local to you, the money stays in the UK, and that's a pretty big deal. Instead of your money going to large international companies where the maker or designer receives a fraction of the product price, it goes directly to the person who made your wonderful gift.

But it's not just about money. Each purchase, gives the artist, the maker, the crafts person a confidence in their product, chance to develop their skills further, opportunity to re-invest the money back to their business and carry on producing beautiful works of art.

HANDMADE WITHSTANDS TIME

Remember those days, when you bought something and it lasted for a very long time? Most handmade items are made to last. They are made from a material that will withstand the time and the changes are that you are going to keep them for a long time.

THERE IS A STORY BEHIND EACH PRODUCT

Each handmade product has its own story, each handmade shop and the person who created it puts a lot of time and effort in to making something that's unique, beautiful and made just for you. There is a reason behind every choice throughout the stages of your product creation – why the gems selected for your silver bracelet have a beautiful peacock green colour, or why the colour of your beads are a particular shade of purple.

BUY HANDMADE DIRECTLY FROM THE MAKER

It can't be simpler than this. You buy directly from the person who makes your handmade gift. If you need to ask any question about the product (materials used to make it, how to look after it, colour & size options) you will talk directly with the person who made it. They know their product inside out and will be able to give you the best advice. When you place your order with Made By Rachel, the notification comes directly to the maker (me!!), and I will prepare your order – make the product, personalise, beautifully wrap it (yes, we creative people have a thing about pretty boxes and sparkly tissue paper...) and take it to the post office.

BUYING HANDMADE KEEPS THE CRAFT SKILLS AND TRADITION GOING

This might be a bit altruistic reason, but by supporting your local artisan you are also supporting the craft skill they practise. By supporting the traditional crafts, such as silversmithing, clay artist, glass artists, weavers or many others, we are helping them to pass the skills to the next generation and keep the art and craft alive.

WHEN YOU BUY HANDMADE IT SHOWS THAT YOU CARE

If you buy your friend a commercially produced necklace, the chances are that somebody else will have it too. It might be pretty and it might even be expensive, but it's not necessarily unique.

Description

Once only a precious vintage finds, these sleek casserole dishes are now one of those “gotta-have-em” pieces for the home cook who loves their retro vibes. The triple-enameled carbon steel can evenly cook any soup, stew, or ragù we throw at it, and it's so darn pretty we can bring it straight from the oven to the dinner table, where the ingenious lid also doubles as a trivet. (And if you're tempted to get more than one of these pots, you can also use the lids for easy stacking!) A quick scrub with hot, soapy water will wash away even the most stubborn food bits, so being on dish duty feels a lot more bearable. Did we mention it's oven, stovetop (including induction), and freezer safe? Well, it is.

Howdy, fardina

Why can't I change my mobile number?

CNC uses a series of checks to verify the user's identity upon any request to change their mobile number. You will receive an error message if you have failed multiple verification processes.

Why can't I change my mobile number?

What is the Service Fee for Free Shipping Shops & Coins Cashback Program?

As CN'C matures in the services provided to Sellers, an additional avenue to create, maintain and charge services to the Sellers is required. This charge is known as the Service Fee.

Service Fees are applicable to both the Coins Cashback & Free-Shipping Special Programme. Sellers are charged a percentage of the COGS (Cost of goods sold) when an order is created during the pre-defined timeframe (of when a Seller is within the programme)

Can I change the delivery method after the order is shipped?

Unfortunately, you can't change your delivery method once your order has been shipped out by the seller.

In situation that you urgently need to change your delivery method, do notify the seller as it requires you to cancel the current order and place a new order.

How to return the products?

Go to the online site where you purchased your merchandise. Find and read the return policy.

Most online stores will only accept returns of unused and unopened items. If it is clothing, you must keep the tags on the clothing in order to return the purchase.

What to do if the order has not yet arrived?

We highly recommend that you constantly check on your CN'C website to track the status of your order. The shipping information status might not reflect immediately, kindly wait within 24 - 48 hours for the couriers to update your order status.

You may also view the status of your order on the orders details page. Please note the expected delivery time (EDT).

If your order has not yet picked up by the courier within the expected Ship Time, the order will automatically be canceled and refunded. Click here to know where you will get your refund.

Why did my login attempt fail?

My product is delisted by CN'C, what should I do?

Delisted products are products taken down from your shop temporarily likely due to listings violation.

Please refer to Product > Suspended Products in Seller Center for further reasons and actions on delisted products.

You may edit your listing's details if it contains inaccurate or misleading information.

Delisting a product does not pause the review process. You will need to update the listing to comply with Shopee's Listing Policy by the deadline, or it will be deleted.

All these masks are made locally in Montreal, Canada. We have outgrown our production capacity and use a local sewing company to help us meet demand for our masks. Also because of our laws in our country we must tag all masks for export. You can easily rip them out without damaging the masks.
